THE EDIGER FAMILY

The forebears of THE EDIGER FAMILY lived in North Central Europe. The earliest record available is that of Heinrich Ediger who lived in the Montauerweide community of West Prussia. Nothing is known of his birthday, his death, occupation, or whom he married. The record has it that he had three sons, as follows:

1. Johann (Hans) Born August 5, 1775 Montauerweide, W. Prussia
2. Peter Born October 15, 1777 Montauerweide, W. Prussia
3. Heinrich Born November 28, 1779 Montauerweide, W. Prussia

Johann (Hans) Ediger, the oldest son of Heinrich Ediger, grew up at Montauerweide, West Prussia, where he married Anna Frantzen; here also their first six children were born, three of whom died in childhood. Later they moved to the Zieglershuben community in West Prussia where Mrs. Ediger died on January 12, 1815, just a few days after the birth of Maria. Three months later, as a widower of forty, Johann married Elizabeth Ewert, a maiden of twenty-five years, from Ellerwald. They were married at Zieglershuben where they continued to reside for another two or three years. Their first son, Solomon, was born here on July 29, 1816. His birth is the last of this family's entry in the Mennonite Church records of Tragheimerweide, West Prussia. Heinrich, the next son, was already born in South Russia, November 20, 1919. The precise time of their move to Russia is not known, but it is known that Mr. Ediger died in the village of Schardau, Molotschna, South Russia, in 1835. They lived in Alexanderthal, a village near Schardau, where David and probably the two youngest children were born. Both of these villages were founded in 1820 and thus the Johann (Hans) Edigers were probably pioneers settlers in Alexanderthal, and maybe later moved to Schardau. It was here that the father, Johann (Hans) Ediger, died on a Wednesday evening, January 16, 1835, at 10 o'clock while in his sixtieth year. He was also buried here. Mrs. Ediger died on November 27, 1864, while in her seventy-fifth year, also in Schardau.

Cornelius A. Ediger, the son of Johann (Hans) Ediger and Elizabeth Ewert, was born in South Russia where he married Aganetha Dahl in 1849. To this marriage were born 10 children, of which three preceded them in death.

In 1875, they immigrated to USA aboard the ship Nevada, arriving in New York. They journeyed to Nebraska and settled near Hampton to make their home. Just like many other immigrants with very few provisions, the wife and children helped in the fields and earned money to help make a living. On May 22, 1878, Cornelius and Aganetha were both baptized and remained faithful unto death. In 1898, after four months of illness with dropsy, Cornelius passed away at the age of 71 years and 11 months, leaving his wife, seven children, 44 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Aganetha Ediger then purchased a house near the Church to live and take care of herself. The last few years, when her eyesight failed, she stayed with her children in turn, contented and easy to get along with. She loved music and singing, and after she could no longer read herself, she would ask us to read out of her song-book so she could sing. She was a widow for twelve years. After two months and three days sickness, she passed away on April 28, 1910, at the age of 82 years and eight months. She left 7 children, 59 grandchildren and 37 greatgrandchildren. For some time she had a longing to be released from this life and be with the Lord -- this, her wish, was fulfilled.

Ediger - Toews

Jacob Toews, son of Gerhard Toews and Elizabeth nee Kroeker, was born Nov. 4, 1859. His mother died in his youth.

In 1870 his father married Sarah Wall. In 1874, he immigrated with his parents to America, and heled them through all the hardships in the pioneer years.

Katherina Ediger, daughter of Cornelius Ediger and Aganetha nee Dahl, was born Sep. 20, 1858. She came to America with her parents in 1875 and also helped them during the first years. At age 20 she worked as a general farm laborer at Beatrice, Nebraska, for one year, for which she received $60.00.

Jacob Toews married Katherina Ediger in 1879. They used the $60.00 Katherina had earned to buy 80 acres of Prairie (now the home place) They lived with his parents a few months while Jacob plowed part of the prairie and built a one-room sod house with a brick oven. Later they built a two-room wood structure, which was added to as rooms were needed. Our parents never moved, and all 11 children were born in this home. At this writing the home still stands, and the oldest grandson is the owner.

Pur parents were converted and, upon confession of faith, were baptized June 27, 1879, joining the Mennonite Brethren Church, to which they belonged and lived their Christian faith until death.
