Nach der Ausgabe von B.H. Unruh:

"Die niederländisch - niederdeutschen

Hintergründe der mennonitischen Ostwanderungen im 16., 18. und 19. Jahrhundert."

gehört der Name "Kroeker" zu der Flämischen Richtung. Dieser Name variiert ausserordentlich:

Seite 160: Heinrich Krekier, Sohn des verstorbenen Hollaenders Jan Krekier - - (Kroeker)

"Kricaert" weist wohl nach Flandern.

Auch kommt er vor wie "Kryckert".

Seite 175: Aelteste der Königsberger Mennonitengemeinde Kroeker, ein Kaufmann - - - .

Es sind eine ganze Reihe Familien mit diesem Namen von Preussen nach Russland ausgewandert, ich kann nicht feststellen welches unsere Vorfahren waren.

Around 1988-89 their neighbours noticed that there was something wrong with Tracy. She neglected the children. So they mentioned it to Frank and he took Tracy to the Doctor. He found that she had Huntington disease inherited from her father. She had to be put into a nursing home. The older 2 children used to see her every day after school. He would take leave in the evenings to see her mother. He worked full day, also had to look after the meals and the laundry. There was no time to raise the children properly. After some time he divorced Tracy, for he could not afford to pay her hospital stay (nursing home) ^{now} and also get extra help. Two years ago he re married a teacher. The children have now a very fine mother who takes time for them. My sister used to see them. The children write to me. Lisa still goes to see her mother twice a week.

The children were all born in Winnipeg, while they lived on a farm at Grande Pointe, Man.

They moved to BC in the fall of 1943 and bought a farm near Greendale. In 1948 The Fraser river went over his banks and flooded their farm. The building was 6 feet in the water.

On Nov. 3, 1946, he was ordained to the Ministry by Bishop Wilhelm Markers. Now he attended Canadian Northwest Bible College, Winnipeg for further preparation in the service of the Lord. During the following years he served in several churches.

They were looking forward to celebrate their Diamond Wedding Anniversary in June of 1990. But the Lord had other plans. On March 23, 1990, he took his dear help-mate home to glory, and Gerhard was alone. Lonely years followed. Three years later, on Sep 18, 1993, he remarried in Clearbrook Widow Selma Bergen (nee Gerbrondt) * Aug. 1, 1911.

Together they took a trip to Russia (Sep. 1995)

to visit our old place where we used to live.
They spent ten days in Russia, and 10 days in Germany,
where many of our relatives are living.
