Johann Martens

- 1836

Martens - Martenss

Martensen - Martin - Martins - Mertins - Mertens
a Prussian Mennonite family name, which is recorded as early as 1619.

From Russia the name was transplanted to North and South America. Outstanding leaders carry that name.

This name is also common in the Netherlands.

Menn. Encyclopedia Vol. III, p. 513.

A1

Johann Martens *

+ (before) 1914 Elisabethtal

He lived in Elisabethtal, Molotskja, S.R., a tall big man, well respected. Turned blind and was known to walk with a cane. Had a small beautiful farm. He rented his land out. There was a "Pachtartikel" in the code of Elisabethtal and his portion of this was rented out also.

As the war broke out on June 21, 1941
Johann Martens was taken in the first group. His wife & children were deported to Kolchinskaya Oblast, where it was very cold. She had to help with the thrashing in the field, which was covered with snow, and leave her children with other people. Margita and Hanni succumbed under such hardships.
