Within the Framework of Genealogy

Only one possible text may be chosen; and this may be found in John 3:16: "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son".

But how does that make sense? What has the love of God to do with genealogy? Very much, when we comprehend what genealogy means and entails. We simply ask ourselves: what is the purpose of such research? Is it just and only dates which swell in our heads, and often belabour it? When the matter is not properly understood than it will just become a burden. But one who really understands what is involved herewith, he comes eventually to the point when he knows explicitly: this person has this character today, this person has this character at this point, that person at that, and at yet another point there become clear what was in reality in the other. So that one person becomes the exact evolution of the different traits regenerate out of the past. One understands this in the framework of the varied similarities of talent and accomplishments, as well as resemblance physically. If you are a poet, or possess similar qualities. Why are you a scholar life-long? Why can you converse better then maintain melody and harmony, and yet carry a good voice in song? Or why don't you carry any concern about what happens in the political, social or cultural world, and have no interest in finer things than the daily papers? A great deal relies on the time in which one lives, with the regional environment, and with the development of the population there in that time. Much has to do with the heritage which you have received from the past out of all times, from all possible sides, a little from every direction; and so in one xxx person there has formulated what binds and unites the past, alive again at the time.

With this I cannot emphasize enough this truth: what we are is a heritage of our fathers. I have been told that this is true the further one goes back. This becomes ever more certain the more I think of it.

Where do we come when we go back? First I would like to say that we go back further than the bearers of our family name into antiquity; rather we go back to that place, where it becomes clear that what we have practiced and emphasized in our faith, our principle our ethics, and finally our daily manner of life. The hearers of our name go only back to a point and antiquity may be silent when the name is not re-echoed, and one loses track.

Secondly, our development in the physical realm depends upon a spiritual one, and in many cases, we are there where we are in a particular situation because just this and this was our past spiritual source.

I explain this further. Let us break through all barriers of family clan. Where do we come? Do we not lose the coil of our fabricated and oft disappointing direction of our descendancy? We must burst boundaries and come to something more significant. "What is a name?" asks the poet of all Englishmen. Often it only fosters feuds among families. One has seen this when families come together in a neighbourhood, or through marriage or business, even if it could have been otherwise. The important thing to which we come is that particular qualities are personalized in a leader in the past. Every people has such a progenitor. We know what we mean in the word. Father Abraham became Father of a people so big one cannot properly enumerate them. Father Jacob became father over a smaller group of people: the twelve branches of the children of Israel, because he had 12 sons. Here we begin to see the fact that in the end sons of fathers become people, and people multiply in the future into nations.

Our people, the Mennonites also have a forefather, not so much as a flesh and blood progenitor, as in direct line of a faith. We may not forget that Menno Simon was our Father here; the institutional Church of Rome was in spiritual night, and it became so dark that over the then known world a protestant movement broke out; in every direction one began to think about the matter. The situation was too much for a Luther, for a Calvin, for many an Anabaptist leader in the Netherlands and Prussia and in Switzerland; and Menno became one of the foremost leaders. I believe it was that way because what Menno thought came so definite, so convincing and so strong, because he gave his life for the matter, because he held that it was worth the cause. Fundamentally he sacrificed his life for the future generation on a spiritual plane. Menno had his own conviction of faith, and threw it visibly into the approach of the Roman Church and its adherents. Because Menno had such invincible faith, he had influence, and therefore we are today the "Menno-Volk". Had Menno ever doubted and faltered, there would be no further striving for a wholesome understanding of biblical precepts which he in his many papers clarified so aptly. Therefore may no one ask: Why are we Mennonites? We know it!

Finally we come to the conclusion of this brief dissertation, and explain to us knowingly the groundwork of Menno's faith. Why has Menno then believed as he did, when he took the Scriptures? Here we must know that not every common man had that franchise circa 1500 A.D. But Menno was educated. He had studied as a Roman priest, and as such he had better access to the Scriptures. We have a clear answer. Menno believed only what he read here, and what he read was the news of all News, because he did not know that a man is justified by faith. I believe he must have had a great urgency in his study, and has thus come to this place where we read in John 3:16: "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son" ... Was this not the centre of all faith, which through the studies became interwoven into his faith?

Thus eventually Menno arrived at a consciousness that God is so concerned about his creatures that he gave his ultimate best. Our rise and fall actually lies here. That God has created us as loved creations in Eden. There was the beginning through Adam and Eve who became rebels, and throw away the heritage of God's love. I believe Menno must have clearly seen himself as descendant from these in Eden; he must have seen himself as poorest among the destitute Roman Church, and he must have told himself, this foolishness must cease, and I must retain my lost heritage in faith. And so Menno found and fondled what had departed as his descendant heritage, and we want to be obtainers of that legacy - because it has been kept for us through his faith.

The marks that a branch may suffer becomes a chapter in a family chronicle.

Vater:

Mein lieber Vater Peter Abram Paetkau wurde am 24. Februar 1881 in Burwalde, Sued-Russland, Chortitzer Kolonie, geboren. Seine Eltern waren Abram Johann Paetkau und Marie geb. Martens. Er wurde in seinem 19. Jahre (1900) auf das Bekenntnis seines Glaubens getauft von Aeltester Isaak Dyck von der Chortitzer Mennoniten-Gemeinde aus Rosental, und in die Gemeinde aufgenommen.

Von 1902 an musste er vier Jahre im Forstdienst dienen. Er hat viel Jahre als Chorteiler gedient.

Am 7. Januar 1907, trat er in den heiligen Ehestand mit unsere Mutter Helena Schmidt, Tochter von Abram Schmidts aus Gruonfeld. Am 20. September 1909 wurde er zum Prediger gewaehlt und gleich als Leiter der Ortsgemeinde. Er hat auch die Taufe vollzogen an den Taufkandidaten.

1914 wurde er wieder eingezogen und musste im Wald arbeiten. Drei und ein halbes Jahr war er von zu Hause weg. Diese Jahre war er hauptsaechlich Koch. Er bereitete das Essen zu den Mahlzeiten fuer die Mannschaft, die auch eingezogen war.

1922, als er in Arkadak predigen musste, wurde er krank und kam zurueck zu Burwalde. D.h. sie waren mal wohnhaft hier, aber schon anno 1909, kurz nach dem Freien, nach Central gewandert dort zu wohnen. Er bekam Typhus und war vier Tage sehr krank. Er starb am 30. November und wurde begraben am 4. Dezember 1922. Pred. Neufeld hielt die Leichenrede ueber Jes. 40,1: "Tues et, troestet mein Volk, spricht euer Gott". Nach Vesper redeten die Prediger Isaak Pauls und Abraham Paetkau, ein Neffe des Vaters.

Ich war noch nur 14 Jahre alt als Vater starb.

January 20, 1971.

Mutter:

Meine liebe Mutter wurde den 7. Juli 1881 in Grusenfeld, Sued-Russland, Chortitzer Kolonie geboren, das dritte Kind von Abram und Helena Schmidt. Ihre Mutter war Helena geb. Block (1857-1919) aus Burwalde. Sie traten im Jahre 1878 in den Ehestand und hatten eine grosse Familie von zehn Kindern. Als ihr Vater im Jahre 1896 starb, wurde Kornelius Gronau ihr Pflegevater.

Mutter wurde von Geliebter Isaak Dyck Rosental getauft. Am 7. Januar 1907 trat sie in den heiligen Ehestand mit unserem Vater Abram Paetkau aus Burwalde. Sie zogen 1909 zu Central.

Den 4. September 1926, fast vier Jahre nach Vaters Tod, verliessen wir Russland und kamen den 6. Oktober 1926 hier in Canada bei Winkler, Manitoba, an. Mutter fragte uns ob wir reisen wollten, ich und mein einziger Bruder Peter sagten ja. Sie wollte uns nicht davon abhalten. So verkauften wir unsere Wirtschafft.

Mutter wohnte in Reinfeld bei Winkler und wir Jungens arbeiteten aus. Auch sie hat anderthalb Jahre bei Gerhard Duecks, Kronsgart, gearbeitet, dann 5 Jahre in Gnadental und 9 Jahre in Reinfeld. Bald renteten wir Land. Mutter konnte sich bald einen 1929 Pontiac erlauben.

Als mein jungster Bruder in den Ehestand trat und wir schon beide ein Viertel bei Sporling besaessen, zog Peter auf sein Land und Mutter wohnte bei ihnen. Im Jahre 1950 bauten wir ein Haus fuer sie bei uns auf dem Hof. Sie war ungefaehr ein Jahr in Niverville gewesen. Es hatte ihr da nicht gefallen. Sie wollte bei uns Kinder sein.

Mutter starb den 30. April 1957 an Schlag. Sie war 35 Jahre Witwe, hat mit unserem Vater fast 17 Jahre zusammen gelebt, davon war er 3 1/2 Jahre im Dienst. Sie hat schwer gearbeitet und fuer uns gesorgt, solange sie konnte.

January 20, 1971.

Father was born as first son to his parents on December 20, 1907 at Furwalde, Chortitza Colony in South Russia. With his mother and brother Peter he immigrated to Canada in 1926. He lived with his mother in Reinfeld while renting land and working as farm aid at various places.

He was married to Helena M. Schmidt, also a recent immigrant, on June 4, 1939 by the late Bishop David D. Schultz at their home in Reinfeld. Mother, a member of the M.B. Church, was the fourth of five children of Martin Schmidt (1872-1933) and Maria nee Klassen of Gruenfeld, Chortitza Colony. They lived for a brief duration at Kleefeld, being neighbours of my parents-in-law, Wilhelm and Maria Dyck.

In 1941 Dad moved to his land he had bought thru the late C. Barth McNutty of Sperling, at Sperling in the R.M. of Morris Sec. 16-6-2. In 1945 he again bought a half section on Sec. 12-6-2, renting three years, then intending to buy from Isaac Friesen living in the Russian Mennonite Settlement - Cannon S.D. #2297. We moved here on June 21. or so on the last day of school, and since I have lived here.

The M.B. Church was located here and we attended till about 1957 when we went to Lowe Farm, Lengthaler Church, where the parents were members.. Here also we went to public school - Cannon S.D. #2297. Dad was elected Secretary-Treasurer in 1950 and served in that position till 1955, after which he has been chairman and third Trustee. In later years he served on the Service Committee in our own Church, being re-elected in 1971 after serving a few terms. He has also been in the M.C.C., Church Brotherhood, Schools and Manitoba Conference delegate.

The acquisition of land was stepped up in 1954 when he bought NW $\frac{1}{4}$ Sec. 16-6-2 and in 1956 SE of Sec. 36-6-2, for something like \$1,000 and \$9,000 resp. The first land deal was for S $\frac{1}{2}$ Sec. 16-6-2 for \$6,700. W $\frac{1}{2}$ -12-6-2 was bought for \$13,000 in 1948. It was SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 36-6-2 that I rented 1958-1962

Peter was the first child to be born, on Mar. 29, 1940 in the Winkler Bethel by Dr. C.C. Wiebe. The parents lived at Kleefeld at the time.

Judy Helen was born Aug. 6, 1941 in Concordia Hospital. The third and last child to be born to the parents was Mary Johanna on September 2, 1942 in the Concordia Hospital. Dr. Oalkers was our long-time family physician, with office in Toronto General Trust Building on Portage Avenue.

Dad has had much hire help till I was out of school. With one of these he became involved in a fairly serious accident, hitching a tractor to the swather. The chauffeur for Lt. Gov. McWilliams also drove into his truck on Main Street in Winnipeg. Earlier he lost a sick fender at Sanford to his 1939 Chevrolet to two girls failing to stop. In 1970 harvest season, on September 3rd, on a Saturday, he was involved in a serious combine accident when he was caught in the table auger. He spent five to six weeks in Misericordia General Hospital and carried a cast into December due to vertebrae injury. He was fortunate in the amount of injury he received then.

There is a variation of spelling for this family name. B.H. Unruh does not even list it in his book in Ch. VII: "Namen aus den Ostfriesischen Hebungslisten und den anderen unten auszugsweise wiedergegebenen Listen." It may be supposed that this name has come into Mennonite circles during the later Prussian existence. It is an occupational name, like many names are. Gustav E. Reimer lists it in "Verzeichnis der Familiennamen aus der Zeit vor 1800", and thus "Paetkau, Petkau, Patkau, Peterckau (SC) - Tiegenghagen -" Johann S. Postma in his "Das Niederlaendische Erbe ---" says only this: Petkau mit allen Nebenformen. Ortsu?? Hier auch wohl "Petker". But that may be questioned. Reimer lists Petker separate.

David Paetkau, Vancouver, asserts "The name 'Peterckau' - the final form of which is either Petkau or Paetkau - is registered in the Church Annals of Tiegenghagen, a place near Danzig. Then W. Prussia, now Gdansk, Poland. In 1789 Jacob Paetkau emigrated to Chortitza in South Russia, near the present city of Zaporozhje, where he - a former shoemaker - took up farming.

D.D. Rempel writes that Cornelius Paetkau asserts that all Paetkaus are related, and says the original spelling of the name is "Paetkeau" or similar. He says the "eau" ending indicates French background. He states that during the suppression of Huguenots in France many went to Switzerland and also Prussia and may have become members of the Mennonite Church there.

John Paetkau, Hanley, says the name has seen many variations through the years and lists these: Poetkau, Poetker, Pettkau, Paethkau and Paetkau. His grandfather wrote Paethkau, as also David P. Paetkau. Rosenfeld says says his predecessors did in Russia. John Paetkau says now they spell it without the "e" yet, as d does also Jake Patkau, Niverville: his family is also in Saskatchewan.

Most Mennonites in Manitoba write it "Paetkau" but in some cases the new generation will omit the "e". There are also "Poethers" in Manitoba, but I am personally convinced this name has another origin.

-Peter B. Paetkau

The earliest known history of the Paetkau family may be traced back to the middle of the 18th century. It was in the year 1759 when Jacob Paetkau was born in the village of Tiegenhagen, Prussia, just west of Danzig, belonging to Prussia at the time, and until the future partition of Prussia, when it helped to formulate modern Poland, where Jacob was born. He may have been the first one to use his family name, which is a trade-name. If we understand anything about the origin of modern family names.

In the year 1789 he was among the first emigrants from the area which left for the future home of the Mennonites in the Ukraine. Originally he settled in the village of Chortitza, established in the new frontier settlement. As the colony grew and new villages founded, he settled in the village of Burwalde, which was settled in 1803.

Jacob is the only Paetkau known to have settled in the Chortitza Old Colony, coming from Prussia, although there is mention of other families by this name going to the Kolitschna settlement, also here in South Russia. Therefore, all the Paetkaus stemming from Burwalde, and those who have moved to daughter villages of colonies, admit that Jacob Paetkau : 1759-1818, was the grand-daddy of them all. At the present time the seventh generation is growing up in Canada.

Jacob had a sizable family of five sons and two daughters, considering the fact that he earned his living as a farmer and shoemaker, the latter which occupied him in Prussia. Descendants of the oldest son Jacob are known to have immigrated to Saskatchewan. I have also been able to trace the present generation living in Manitoba back to the second son Peter. The fifth child Johann, born 1799, was my great-great-grandfather, and his son Abraham, born 1837, was my great-grandfather. Peter, the second youngest son of Abraham J., was a popular but short-lived minister in his life-time, and moved to Central shortly after his marriage to Helen Abraham Schmidt, a not too distant relative finished Russian poet Alexander Blok, whose predecessor immigrated to Russia in the late 1700s with two other brothers, one of whom was my grandfather's great-grandfather Peter Blok, whose ancestors possibly were the famous Danzig family of sculptors in the 1500 and 1600 century: von der Block, were of nobility.

Peter Paetkau, my grandfather died in the years after the 1917 Revolution, due to a contraction of Typhoid in November 1922 on a preaching journey to Arkadak. There were two young boys in the family then: Abram born in 1907, and Peter born in 1910. In 1926 the boys at a tender age decided that they would like to emigrate from Russia, and so grandmother sold her farm, hid money in her shoes, and journeyed across the Atlantic, having left Sept. 4, 1926, and arrived at Winkler. They settled in the village of Reinfeld, near Winkler.

In 1939, Abram, my father was married and temporarily settled at Plum Coulee, till it was possible to buy $\frac{1}{2}$ section of land at Sperling through contacts with Cornelius Bartholomew McNulty. At the same time grandmother bought half a section (13-6-2) but remained living at Reinfeld until Peter married in 1943, and moved to Sperling with his mother.. Abram bought the S $\frac{1}{2}$ of 16-6-2 for \$6,700 and Peter bought the W $\frac{1}{2}$ of 13-6-2 where he lived until 1950. Abram lived on this place from 1941-1948 when it was possible for him to buy the half section 12-6-2, close to a church and school in the Mennonite settlement. \$13,000 was paid for this transaction in 1948. This had been rented from Isaac Friesen from 1945-47. We moved here in June 1948. Peter bought land near Reinfeld School District in 1950 and moved three miles south of our farm.

Into the Abram Paetkau family were born three children: Peter (1940), Helen Judith, (1942) Mrs. Norman Hiebert of Longview, Texas, and Mary Johanna (1943). Into the Peter Paetkau family these three sons were born: Cornelius Peter (1944), Abe Victor (1946) and John (1954).

Again through the contact with C.B. McNulty, J, Peter, was able to buy land in the Sperling district on Provincial Highway #336, on S $\frac{1}{2}$ -8-6-2 in 1962, renting from the same owner, Mrs. F.C. Abry, who died in 1968, the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 8-6-2. This land was bought through the M.F.C.C. for \$25,000, borrowing \$15,000 and payable in 29 years.

In July 1967, the Canadian Centennial year, Peter was married to Mary Anne Dyck of Hesseisle, and took up residence on the farm here. In 1971 the family consists of one daughter, Mary Melanie (1969) and one son Brian Rudolph Peter (1970), Manitoba Centennial Citizen, July 4th, at Sperling - Back - Home Day.

Peter has continued to contribute to community activities since he came to the district. In 1968 he was elected as Director of Sperling Coop Oil Ass., and was elected as secretary of the Bergthaler Church at Howe Farm in January 1968 and re-elected in 1971. He is also delegate to church schools for this church. In 1969-70 he was a member of Toastmasters International and invited the Red River Club for a sitting in Sperling in March 1970. Peter was a 1969 regional delegate to sub-district meetings of the Red. Coop in Pilot Mound and Carman.

One of Peter's long time interests is history, general, regional, Mennonite and genealogical. With much success he has gained access to papers and family registers and church book relating to his family, so that this present work is enhanced, and possible.

In 1970 he received a mimeographed copy of The Early history of Settlers at Sperling, and revised and edited that history for possible publication, with extended histories of the Mennonite settlement at Sperling, and the Paetkau family, with Appendixes.

A work on the families of Europe lists the following name which could be a derivative of two present forms: Paetkau or Petkau:

Petkum - Ost-friesland

Petkum de - Oldenburg, South Germany.

Prior to any records on the Paetkau family must come this information obtained from Mennonitische Forschungsstelle, "eierhof, bei Mannheim, through correspondence with Paul Showalter.

We searched in the Church registers of Tiegenhagen (more specifically Petershagen, with Tiegenhagen) for members of the Paetkau family and found the following:

Family of Jacob Paetkau and ? Tiegenhagen as revealed in the listing

Jacob Paetkau * 1715 - +Jan. 1, 1793

Jacob Paetkau * 1752 - +Aug. 16, 1818

Jacob Paetkau *Aug. 16, 1789 - +Aug. 13, 1843

but another was born by the same name

Showalter indicates the following as subsequent records to the foregoing:

(Possibly he was the father of Peter Paetkau who married Christina Lewens).

Unless we find a new source of genealogical information, we take the record up from here!

Ein Pleetzchen weiss ich, einsam und bescheiden da weil' ich gern, in Freuden und in Leiden.

Wo mag es sein? Es ist rein Kämmerlein.

Da schütte ich der Leiden ganze Quelle, da giesse ich die Tränen in der Stille ins Herz hinein, dem Herrn im Kämmerlein.

Auf Erden gibt es manches ja zu klagen das man keinem Menschen ins Herz kann sagen.
Ich bring's hinein zum Herrn ins Kämmerlein.

Da habe ich Rat und Hilfe stets gefunden,
Mein Herr war bereit zu aller Stunden
mir nah zu sein, eilt' ich ins Kämmerlein.

Und frage ich dann: "Herr, was ist dein Wille?"
Gib Gnade mir zu jeder Frist zu gehen, hinein, hinein zu dir ins Kämmerlein.

Unter den West Preussen stehen voren Paulus Petkau und Jan Martens Knuppel (Knueppel) aus Danzig. Petkau befand sich unter den ersten hundert (1652) mit den Gronaumeier Jan von Riebeck gelandeten Einwanderern, nachdem er im Dienste der Hollaendischen Ost-Asien Company bereits mehrere Jahre in Ostasien gedient hatte. Riebeck hielt grosse Strecke auf ihn und ernannte ihn im September 1652, als einen Niederlaendischen Sergeant. Musikant, Lehrer, Kritiker.

Die Mennoniten haben einen Musikant, Lehrer und Kritiker verloren. D.H. Paetkau ist am 9. Juni an den Folgen eines Herzinfalles verstorben.

Choere in ganz Kanada haben seinen Einfluss drei Jahrzehnte hindurch verspürt. Seine Studenten sind in den meisten Provinzen Kanadas zu finden, viele in den Vereinigten Staaten und in verschiedenen anderen Teilen der Welt.

Er verbrachte die meisten seiner Arbeitsjahre in Saskatchewan und Alberta, und trat vor einigen Jahren in Richmond, B.C. in den Ruhestand. Dort beteiligte er sich an der Mennonitengemeinde. Einige Tage vor seinem Tode bot sein Mädchenchor ein Konzert in der lokalen Kirche und er trug eine gut ausgearbeitete Lektion ueber Frauen und Musik zur Zeit des Neuen Testaments, vor.

Persoenlich war ich ihm in seiner Rolle als Kritiker am naechsten. Er wurde nicht muede die Kirche ernst zu nehmen und Fragen bezueglich Theologie und Struktur aufzuwerfen. Wir tauschten Buecher und Artikel aus. Er war immer damit beschaeftigt, eine Erklaerung abzugeben und Manuskripte zur Veroeffentlichung zu revidieren. Das Buch, an dem er stillschweigend arbeitete und das er von Zeit zu Zeit mit mir besprach, wurde nicht fertig. Aber seine Feder fand oft im "Boten" Ausdruck. Vor einigen Jahren beunruhigte seine Serie "Warum Pastoren uns verlieren" viele Pastoren und andere Leser. Er hielt nicht nur oeffentlich Kritik, sondern es kam auch zu einigen intensiv persoenlichen Konfrontationen. Ich verteidigte ihn in jener Zeit weil er auf seine eigene Weise neues Leben in die Kirche zu bringen hoffte, die er lieben gelernt hatte, obwohl kritisch. Vor einem Jahr zeigten seine Artikel ~~xxxxx~~ ueber die Osterpassion erneut seine Gruendlichkeit bei der Vorbereitung und seine Liebe fuer Bibelstudium als Laie.

Aber wie es in so vielen unserer Debatten oeffentlich war: Er hielt sich an die Bibel. Er freute sich sehr ueber den Apostel Paulus und dessen Briefe, und fragte ein mal: "Was tun die Menschen mit Paulus?" Sie scheinen die Schrift zu benutzen um ihre eigene Auslegung zu befuehigen." Sein Lachen deutete an, ich sollte zum Friesent gehen, falls es mein Ernst sei. Aber das wurde als Nebensache zur Seite geschoben, als eine viel tiefere Frage der Interpretation aufgeworfen wurde. "Wie steht es mit Jesus und seiner Geburt - was sagt Paulus?" Wir hatten kaum damit begonnen, als ich ging. Ich wu s te, ich hatte eine Hausaufgabe, aber das Gespraech hat ein ploetzliches Ende gefunden.

"Bote"-Juni 30, 1972.

-Walter Paetkau, Abbotsford

Die Nachricht von dem ploetzlichen Sterben des Lehrers, David H. Paetkau, Richmond, B.C., hat uns alle erschuettert. Die unmittelbare Todesursache war ein Herzschlag am 9. Juni. Bei einer Gedenkfeier am 11. Juni hat der Saengerchor der Nutena Park Mennonitengemeinde tief bewegt das Lieblingslied des Veringegangenen "Was fragst du - es muss ja so sein" angestimmt. Wie schoen! Sie haben es fuer uns alle gesungen. Denn viele andere Mennonitensaenger quer durch Kanada, jung und alt, werden sich bei dieser Trauerkunde ebenfalls gerade an dieses Lied erinnern, welches sie frueher mit Begeisterung unter dem geschickten und bewaehrten Dirigentenstab des Verstorbenen gesungen haben. Es war gut, dass die (Shirlvohn?) Mennonitengemeinde in Vancouver noch zu Lebzeiten des Dirigenten seine Verdienste um Mensch und Gesang in Mennonitischen Kreisen entsprechend wuerdigte. Nun hat der Tod der 69 jaehrigen den Dirigentenstab aus der Hand genommen. Gott hat gerufen. Trauer, aber auch feste Zuversicht werden uns am frischen Grabhuegel erneut in das Lied einstimmen lassen "Was fragst du - es muss ja so sein!"

Jacob was teacher. In 1920-21 the congregation elected him as minister, shortly he became Bishop as well. He was exiled during the thirties and has presumably perished about 1940.

In 1919 he married Katharina Giesbrecht in Memrik. Katharina came to Schoenhorst to visit her parents. At this time the anarchist Machno's army occupied the villages. For several months they held the front against the White Army, being on the opposite side of the Dniester R. Due to this the young bride could not return to her husband. She then became a typhoid victim and died without ever seeing Jacob again.

The biography of Jacob Paetkau is in Vol III, Menn. Encoy. p.123. He is listed as "a prominent elder in Memrik settlement". In 1911 he began teaching in Schoenhorst, after graduating from the "Lehrer-Seminar". Was drafted into alternative service (medical corp.) in 1915-17, resumed teaching in Karpowka, Memrik 1917-1922, "making a brilliant record" as instructor in the area. He was ordained for the ministry in early 1921 and became elder within 6 months. At the request of the Church he remained at his post when he could have immigrated to Canada. He was elected a member of the KFK in 1925. In autumn of 1929 he went to Moscow to help those fleeing from Russia but was arrested and returned to his home. Fleeing to the Caucasus, he served the church there. Constantly in danger, he fled from place to place. He was finally caught in 1937-38, arrested and sent to Siberia. He was dead by 1947. His widow worked in a childrens home in 1949.

David's profession was teaching. For a number of years he was on the staff of Roethorn Junior College. He has also obtained a notable reputation for his knowledge of music and as choir director has travelled the N. American continent with his choirs. He was known as a lay critic of the church, hoping for church renewal. writer of articles for "Der Bote", and author of one book on instruments. Among the whole Paetkau family, and amongst other members of his brothers, has become most famous. Elsewhere in this genealogy there are renditions from "Der Bote" at the time of his death.

From records kept by Abram David Paetkau of Steinland, Manitoba, the following is known, as translated into English. Who Peter's wife was is not known, but his father was Jacob Paetkau.

"My great-grandfather Peter Jacob Paetkau has immigrated from Prussia, the area of Danzig, to Russia about 1810-1812, as a 18 to 20 year old boy and has settled in the village of Blumengart, Yekaterininoslav. His family, and when he died is unknown. The predecessor wrote the family name "Paethkau".

One son of this family is known, probably the oldest, born when Peter J. Paetkau was 26 years old. Frequently the oldest son was named after the father.

Our departure from Russia Yekaterinoslav Gove ment and Chortitz Mun., Village Neu Osterwick to Canada.

We left June 22, 1923 from Chortitz Railway Station at 5:00 PM to the border through Titauen 66 families from Neu Osterwick. We reached the border at Sebesch July 1st, through the big "Gate" July 2nd at 9: AM over the border. Landed in "Rechiza" the same day. Had to take a bath. Our belongings were fumigated, and had to see the American "Doctor".

July 4th we left for Libau over Riga to the harbour. On the 4th was a funeral for Mrs. Paetkau. We sailed to England July 5. from Libau on the ship "Bruton", passed through the Kiel Channel on the 7th in the evening.

Arrived in Southampton July 9th at 12 midnight. We had to see a doctor again on July 10th. Left England July 11th on the big steamer "Empress of France" to Canada.

Arrived in Quebec July 17th in the evening. On the 18th we had to see a doctor again, and at noon we left by train for Winnipeg where we arrived July 20, and on the 21st by train to Winkler. From Winkler Peter A. Zacharias took us to the village of Reinland with horses and buggy.

-A.D. Paetkau (1878-1969)

The Chortitz Colony (Alte Kolonie) South Russia, has been settled from 1789 - 1820. Neu Osterwick, our place of birth, has been settled during the big war with Napoleon, in 1812.
